UNIVERSITÀ DI PISA

What is the "FREEMOVER" programme?

It is a programme for international students who are not participating in an organised exchange programme but who have chosen to study independently at the University of Pisa for either a semester or an academic year. By enrolling on this programme, you will be able to attend lessons for courses which are part of a Laurea Triennale (Bachelor's degree programme) or of a Laurea Magistrale (Master's degree programme) for which you will sit exams. At the end of your studies, you will be able to obtain a certificate for the work you have completed.

Who can participate?

Foreign citizens who belong to one of these categories:

- Have obtained a high school diploma in a foreign country
- Are enrolled in a degree course at a foreign university
- Have obtained a degree at a foreign university

When can I start?

You must follow the academic calendar, which is divided into two semesters:

- September to February (First Semester)
- February to July (Second Semester)

How can I participate?

You can choose the subjects you wish to study at www.unipi.it/index.php/lauree.

Fill in the form for candidates, which is found at: www.unipi.it/en-free-mover and send the completed version to international@unipi.it.

If successful, you will receive a letter of acceptance. Otherwise, you will be contacted by email.

Is it necessary to know Italian?

For courses taught in Italian, it is strongly recommended but not obligatory to have a language level of at least B1. You will be able to enrol on an Italian language course at any level at the Centro Linguistico d'Ateneo (CLi).

How much does it cost?

- € 400 for one semester (max 30 ECTS)
- € 700 for one academic year (max 60 ECTS)

What documents do I need to enrol?

- The receipt of payment of the university fees for enrolment in the Free Mover programme
- A photocopy of your passport or identity card
- A photocopy of your residency permit or the receipt of the application for the residency permit (only for non-EU citizens)
- A document certifying your status as a student, either as a high school graduate or a university graduate, which you can check for at:

www.unipi.it/en-free-mover
